

FINAL ROUND
OF FUNDING

Magellan
METALS

Funding for Esperance community projects

The Magellan Community Fund is seeking funding applications from community and not for profit groups to undertake projects within Esperance. 2011 is the final year for applications and up to $300,000 will be awarded.

Applications will be assessed by a panel comprised of Shire of Esperance, Magellan Metals and local community representatives.

The funding types are:

- Group support funding ($10,000 to $20,000) for items like the purchase or replacement of equipment to help local groups maintain their activities.
- Specific purpose funding ($10,000 to $50,000) to deliver a specific project or support an ongoing program.
- Community development project (typically up to $100,000)

Applications for 2011 funding close at 4.00pm on 9 February 2011.
